Rainbow Reads at Wordcrafters in Eugene

(Young Adult Reading Group)

Rainbow Reads meets the first and third Monday of every month to discuss young adult literature for queer teens, by queer teens, and/or about queer teens. All teen readers across the gender and sexuality spectrum are welcome.

Daryll Lynne Evans, Executive Director of Wordcrafters; Leah Velez, Content and Curriculum Coordinator; Ben Brock, Rainbow Reads Coordinator

Mission Statement: Wordcrafters provides writers and readers opportunities to strengthen their craft, deepen their connection with literature, and share their knowledge with each other and with future generations.

- We are writers and readers. We believe in the power and the value of the written word and seek to help others to express themselves through their writing. We believe we are the keepers of the literature and the chroniclers of our times, and to do that effectively, we must write effectively.
- Wordcrafters is about the craft of writing.

TransPonder

WHAT WE DO / PROVIDE:

- Regular support meetings, socials, and special events for trans/gender diverse folks (and allies) to connect, support, and be with one another.
- A dynamic and community vetted Resource Directory for local/regional trans-inclusive care providers and is for EVERYONE – because whether you're the individual seeking care or someone referring to another care provider, everyone should know where our transgender-inclusive, educated, and experienced care providers are!
- Inclusivity trainings and consultation services to organizations and businesses through our Transgender Education and Awareness Services program.

Ben Brock, Communications and Outreach Coordinator

Mission/Vision Statement: TransPonder's vision and commitment is to:

- Address root causes of discrimination in the trans/gender diverse community through an intersectional social justice lens
- Acknowledge the existence and harm caused by systemic racism and dismantle white supremacy within and outside of our organization.
- Increase allyship and accomplices in the broader community through relationship building and education
- Foster leadership and skill building opportunities within the trans/gender diverse community across generations
- Promote access to health by fostering expertise in mental, physical, and spiritual healing communities
- Network with legal counsel knowledgeable about the trans/gender diverse community
- Provide resource navigation support to address economic inequities, food and housing insecurity, medical and employment discrimination
